SOVEREIGNTY - FINDING OF FACTS

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was in God's presence, and the Word was God. He was present to God in the beginning. Through Him all things came into being, and apart from him nothing can be. Whatever came to be in Him, found life, life for the light of men. The light shines on in darkness, a darkness that did not overcome it." John 1: 1-5

"Sovereignty itself is, of course not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law; but in our system, while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts." Yick Wo vs Hopkins and Woo Lee vs Hopkins (118 U.S. S.Ct. 356).

Thomas Jefferson stated in the Declaration of Independence that "men are created with certain unalienable rights and to secure (guarantee) those rights governments are instituted. These governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."

The successful war for American Independence was formally brought to a close in the year 1783 with the signing of the Treaty of Peace. Article 1 of the Treaty clearly states that King George of England "acknowledges the United States viz the thirteen colonies are free, sovereign and independent States... and relinquishes all claims to the government, property, and territorial rights of the same..."

The United States Supreme Court declares that the "Sovereignty" remains with the "people" and resides with the "people"... Yick Wo vs Hopkins and Woo Lee vs Hopkins (118 U.S. S.Ct. 356).

"There can be no limitations on the power of the people, of the united States of America; by their authority the State Constitutions are made and by their authority the Constitution for the united States of America was established... Hauenstein vs Lynham (100 U.S. 483).

The Michigan Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court concurred and made it perfectly clear the term "person" does not include the "sovereign" and that for a sovereign to be bound by statue the sovereign must be "specifically" named. Will vs Michigan state Police (1938 105 L.Ed. 2nd 45).

"United States vs Fox (94 U.S. 315)" states... in common usage, the term "person" does not include the sovereign. Statutes employing the phrase are ordinarily construed to exclude it.

"Acts of Congress" are not applicable to "sovereigns" in the 50 states. 18 USC, Rule 54 C Positive Law enacted -Titles of United States Code.

It is the doctrine of the common Law that the sovereign cannot be sued in his own court without his consent. The Siren, 74 U.S. (7 Wall.) 152 (1869).

"No action can be taken against a sovereign in the non-constitutional courts of either the united states or the state courts and any such actions is considered the crime of Barratry. Barratry is an offense at common law." State Vs Batson, 17 S.E. 2d 511, 512, 513.
